

PRESS RELEASE – FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Subject: Documented Incident of Police Misconduct Under Legal Review – Call for Journalistic and Public Attention

[City, Georgia] – June 2025

A 2020 case involving an incident of police misconduct, currently under legal review, has raised urgent concerns regarding civil rights, use of force, and judicial transparency in Southeast Georgia.

The victim of the incident—whose identity is protected for legal reasons—has compiled extensive legal documentation and media supporting their claim of unlawful arrest and excessive force by a state officer. This material is being made available to journalists and human rights organizations.

The individual is represented by legal counsel, and outreach efforts are underway to secure independent reporting and oversight.

Available for Review:

- Legal filings, audio/video, affidavits
- Expert opinions on legal violations
- Redacted incident reports and supporting documentation

Inquiries from newsrooms, legal watchdogs, and public advocates are welcomed.
