Subject: Formal Complaint: Unlawful Arrest and Excessive Force by Georgia State Patrol Officer

To Whom It May Concern:

I am writing to formally file a complaint regarding the unlawful actions and excessive use of force by a Georgia State Patrol Officer.

Incident Details:

- Date/Time: May 5, 2020, approximately 5:00 PM
- Location: Jekyll Island exit, Glynn County, GA
- Officer Involved: Unknown (white male, GSP SUV driver, camera obscured)

The incident began as I was leaving my workplace at Marriott Bonvoy on Jekyll Island. I exited the island and was stopped by a Georgia State Patrol Officer.

I was slammed into the officer's vehicle, forced onto the ground, and handcuffed. At no point was I provided with any explanation or rights.

Violations:

1. Fourth Amendment – Unlawful arrest and excessive force.
2. Fifth and Sixth Amendments – Failure to read Miranda rights.
3. Improper search – Violation of Fourth Amendment.
4. Evidence obstruction – Camera tampering.
5. Negligent detainment – Left in unsafe conditions.

Requested Actions:

1. Full investigation into the misconduct.
2. Release of all related footage.
3. Disciplinary actions for involved officer(s).
4. Formal acknowledgment of violations and corrective measures.

I have attached a detailed incident report and additional evidence. Please acknowledge receipt of this complaint.

Sincerely,
Austin Tyler Underwood
