

Sworn Declaration of Austin Tyler Underwood

Re: Unlawful Arrest and Use of Excessive Force – May 5, 2020

I, Austin Tyler Underwood, residing at 362 Strickland Road, Brunswick, GA 31523, submit this sworn declaration under penalty of perjury in accordance with 28 U.S.C. § 1746, and state as follows:

1. On May 5, 2020, I was driving home from my job at the Marriott Bonvoy on Jekyll Island when I was unlawfully intercepted and assaulted by a Georgia State Patrol officer after exiting the Jekyll Island causeway.

2. I was slowed below the speed limit, used hazard lights, and still the officer pursued me without cause, performed a PIT maneuver, and forced me off the road.

3. I complied with verbal commands, exited my vehicle with my hands raised, and asked why I was being stopped. The officer did not respond, but forcibly slammed me into his patrol SUV and threw me to the ground, causing severe back injuries.

4. At no point was I informed of the reason for my arrest, nor was I read my Miranda rights.

5. I continue to suffer from chronic back pain, mobility impairment, and emotional trauma resulting from the incident.

6. This declaration is made to support my formal complaint and legal actions against the Georgia State Patrol.

Executed on: 06/19/25

Signature: AUSTIN TYLER UNDERWOOD

Austin Tyler Underwood